

Ninja Writing Star Wars Example

- I loved it
- I'd watch it again
- Characters were well rounded
- Dialogue was snappy
- Powerful moment: Kylo Ren (bad guy) says: "Nothing will stand in our way. I will finish what you started."
- Pace was relentlessly fast, making the film gripping throughout
- Han Solo goes from being unconcerned about his family to being deeply committed
- Most characters grew into something different by the end
- Opening scenes were riveting, fast-paced
- Some parts were confusing
- Characters more interesting than in original Star Wars
- Rey's character underdeveloped; no clear arc
- Full of twists and turns that keep you guessing all the way to the end

- Conversation between Han Solo/Kylo Ren on bridge was one of film's most dramatic scenes
- Began with intriguing scene: old man gives map of Luke Skywalker's whereabouts to rebel pilot
- Special effects were magnificent
- Plot reuses many plot elements from original Star Wars
- The 3D made you feel like you were actually there
